FASE 2.

CRÍTICA A MASCULINIDADES ESPECÍFICAS Y AL PATRIARCADO

Imagine if women had to orgasm in order to get pregnant by men.
There will be like 8
people in the world.

When I hear the phrase "men don't start drama"

girls if men did not exist and the world was a better and safer place

I'm here to watch the toxic femininity
and also one large popcorn please

A man writing the first explanation of toxic feminism so women can understand it.

Is it “toxic femininity” or, have you been socially conditioned to see women as warm, servile, and obliging and are uncomfortable when they don't adhere to that behaviour?
